David Bouchard is an accomplished trial lawyer who has recovered numerous record-setting multi-million-dollar verdicts for people and families hurt or killed due to the negligence of others.

He has received high praise from jurors, judges, and clients for his courtroom advocacy and has been recognized by Chambers USA, Best Lawyers, and U.S. News and World Report as a premiere trial lawyer. According to Chambers USA, David is a “tenacious trial lawyer,” who is “extremely competent” and “knows how to get to the truth.”

David has represented people in a wide variety of catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases, including cases arising from medical malpractice, product liability, negligent security, premises liability, and negligent operation of a vehicle.

David is one of the most experienced lawyers in the country in the representation of sex trafficking survivors in lawsuits against businesses that benefit from trafficking while turning a blind eye to it. David served as lead counsel for a sex trafficking survivor in a case that resulted in a $40M jury verdict—the largest trafficking verdict against a hotel in United States history.

In his free time, David is active in the Atlanta community. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta and on the Advisory Board for The Posse Foundation Atlanta. David is a member of the Leadership DeKalb Class of 2025, and he is a graduate of the LEAD Atlanta program (2017). He is a member of the Executive Committee for the Clarence Cooper Inn of Court at Emory University School of Law, and David is an adjunct faculty member teaching trial advocacy at The Georgia State University of College of Law.
